

Kolkata Edition/ 22.09.2021

Nalanda University VC conferred with Asia One Women Empowerment Entrepreneurs Award

Prof. Sunaina Singh, Vice Chancellor of Nalanda University, has been honoured with the prestigious Asia One Black Swan Women Empowerment Entrepreneurs Award 2020-21. Prof. Singh is the only academican from India to receive this award in the field of education this year. This award honours the leading innovators and entrepreneurs who are at the forefront of their fields on the global platform. "As a recipient of this award, I feel honoured and humbled to be given such respect. This award will motivate the upcoming generation of women educationists and leaders of India", said Prof. Singh. Prof. Singh is an eminent educationist of India and a professor of English and Comparative Literature. Owing to her scholarly expertise and administrative abilities, the Government of India has entrusted her with the task of revamp the historically renowned ancient Nalanda University. The university is developing innovative educational programs and strengthening its administrative system under her dynamic leadership. Prof. Singh has also had the distinction of holding the chair of Vice President of Indian Council for Cultural Relations (ICCR) is a former Vice Chancellor of English and Foreign Languages University (EFLU). With a rich blend of scholarship, professional integrity, and administrative competence, Prof. Singh represents the empowered Indian women of the 21st century.