

ASEAN - India Network of Universities (AINU) Faculty Exchange Programme (FEP) (Cycle - 2)

Announced by the Hon'ble Prime Minister of India Shri Narendra Modi, the ASEAN - India Network of Universities (AINU) is envisioned as the knowledge ecosystem forged through the linkages among the premier universities in India and ASEAN with Nalanda University as the nodal institution. Exchanges under AINU have been actualised and ongoing.

What is FEP?

AINU offers participating universities from ASEAN and India an opportunity to twin with each other through exchange of faculty under common areas of interest.

The twinning will be on the basis of the identified focus areas. The exchange will be based on the submitted proposal and Expression of Interest (EOI).

Programme Details

Duration

01 academic semester
(Spring / Fall)

Exchange of 10 Faculty Members from premier institutions of ASEAN and India

Facilities

- Int'l Airfare (round-trip)
- Accommodation
- Allowances

Focus Areas

Engineering
Science and Technology
Policy & Lawmaking
Trade & Investment
Peace & Security
Sustainable Development
Humanities
Religion
Cultural Intersections
Blue Economy

Participation Procedure

Your institution has to:

1. Submit Expression of Interest for AINU-FEP to Nalanda University
2. Appoint Project Coordinator
3. Sign Memorandum of Agreement
4. Prepare internal guidelines for selection of faculty
5. Submit proposals for visit of faculties

EOI Deadline
October 20, 2023

For further details,
please check
Dossier for Participating Institutions

Nalanda University

internationalrelations.nu @nalandauniv.edu.in

<https://nalandauniv.edu.in/ainu/>