INTRODUCTION

The Residence Hall Handbook is designed to serve as a guide to students and others who will reside in the Residence Halls of the University. It outlines a code of conduct for acceptable behavior to ensure that all residents live together in a healthy, friendly and peaceful environment. Guidelines in this Handbook reflect the ethos of the University, but it is only through continual co-operation of the inhabitants that the community at Nalanda can be built on mutual respect and concern for each other. We hope that you enjoy your stay at the Nalanda Residence Halls and take full advantage of opportunities that only living on campus can provide.

Nalanda University presently has three Residence Halls: Tathagat Residential, Gargi Residential Hall and Ajatshatru Residential Hall. The imposing and integrated hostel complex stands unique and elevated for its green surroundings & captivating ambience. There are support facilities like cafeteria, play board rooms, and 24X7 Internet. It is a matter of pride that the students started living in the Nalanda University campus after a millennia and it is a proud moment during the AMRIT KAAL.

The Residence Halls have Air Conditioning (Cooling /Hot) and Twin sharing rooms. All rooms in the Residence Halls have well fitted furnitures.

VISION & OBJECTIVES OF THE RESIDENCE HALLS

Priority is given to ensure that Nalanda International University Residence Halls provide a harmonious, healthy and safe stay. The University is committed to promote understanding and appreciation for all nationalities, religions, national origins, classes, etc.

All the Residence Halls of the University are well equipped, and aim to provide students with a holistic living and learning experience.

ACCOMMODATION

a. Eligibility

Depending on the availability, the rooms will be allotted to the following categories of students/scholars:

- All students who are registered in any course of study at Nalanda University
- Any other person as deemed fit to be considered by the Competent Authority at the University.
- All differently abled students are eligible for allotment of Hostel rooms on priority basis.

The following categories of persons shall not be allotted rooms (or allowed to retain their rooms) in the Hostel:

- Students who have faced any kind of disciplinary action by the Residence Hall Committee or any other committee of the University may not be allowed to reside inside the Residence Hall
- Residents who have not cleared their dues by the deadline.
- Any student whose registration is cancelled due to any reason.
- Any student, whose name has been removed from the rolls of the University, will automatically cease to be a resident of the Residence Hall. Such students are required to immediately vacate the rooms allotted to them and leave the Residence Hall.

- Students who have completed their Programme of Study.

b. Process of Application

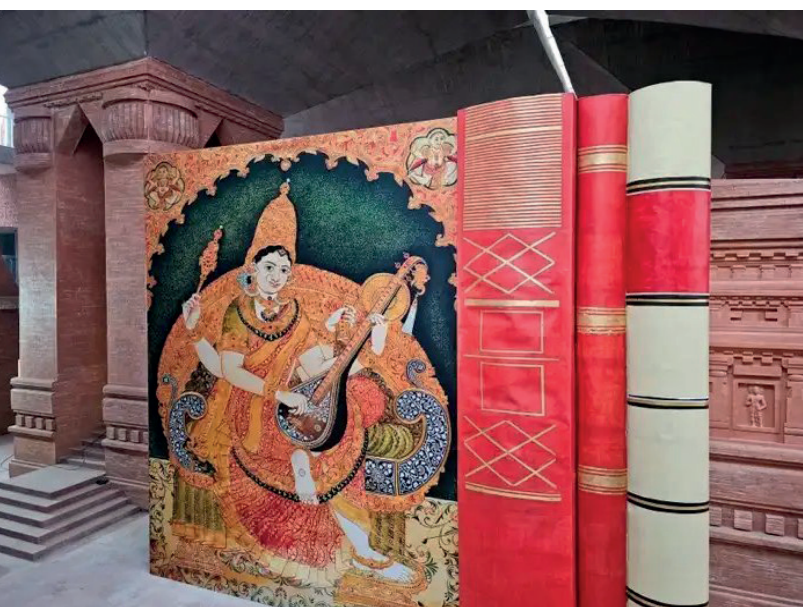

- Application for admission to the Residence Hall must be made in the prescribed Application Form at the time of seeking admission.
- Accommodation will be provided only after payment of the requisite fees as decided by the University Administration from time to time. All charges prescribed in the application form or any other documents are subject to change as per the decision of the concerned University authorities without prior notice.
- At the time of admission every resident has to submit the undertaking given at the end of the Handbook, countersigned by the person paying the fees which conveys the agreement of the resident to abide by the rules and regulations of the Residence Hall.
- At the time of admission of a resident into the Residence Hall and at the beginning of every academic year, each resident is required to submit a duly filled Residence Hall Application and Agreement, containing the current address, mobile and/or the telephone number and the email address of his/her parents/guardian/spouse. Any change in this information at any point of time has to be intimated to the Student Affairs Office in writing.

- At the time of admission, submission of a certified medical history and medication by the resident is mandatory along with the details of medical ailments, if any.

c. Moving in and moving out

- Students are required to stay in the University Residence Halls for all Semesters of their programme as per the Academic calendar of the University.
- As the period of occupancy for an academic year ends on the day prior to the start of summer vacation, students must vacate the room entirely on the said day.
- Students can reside in the Residence Halls during the mid-semester breaks and/or preparation / Reading weeks.
- As a general rule, no student shall be permitted to reside in the University Hostel during the Summer Vacation. Permission to stay during the Summer Vacation may be granted only under exceptional circumstances, subject to the approval of the competent authority. Students seeking permission to stay during the Summer Vacation shall comply with the following requirements:
- A formal request application must be submitted at least fifteen (15) days prior to the commencement of the Summer Vacation. Requests received after the prescribed deadline shall ordinarily not be considered, except in cases of genuine emergencies as determined by the University and shall abide by all instructions issued by the Hostel Administration / University. This includes, but is not limited to:
 - » Temporary relocation to another room or block.

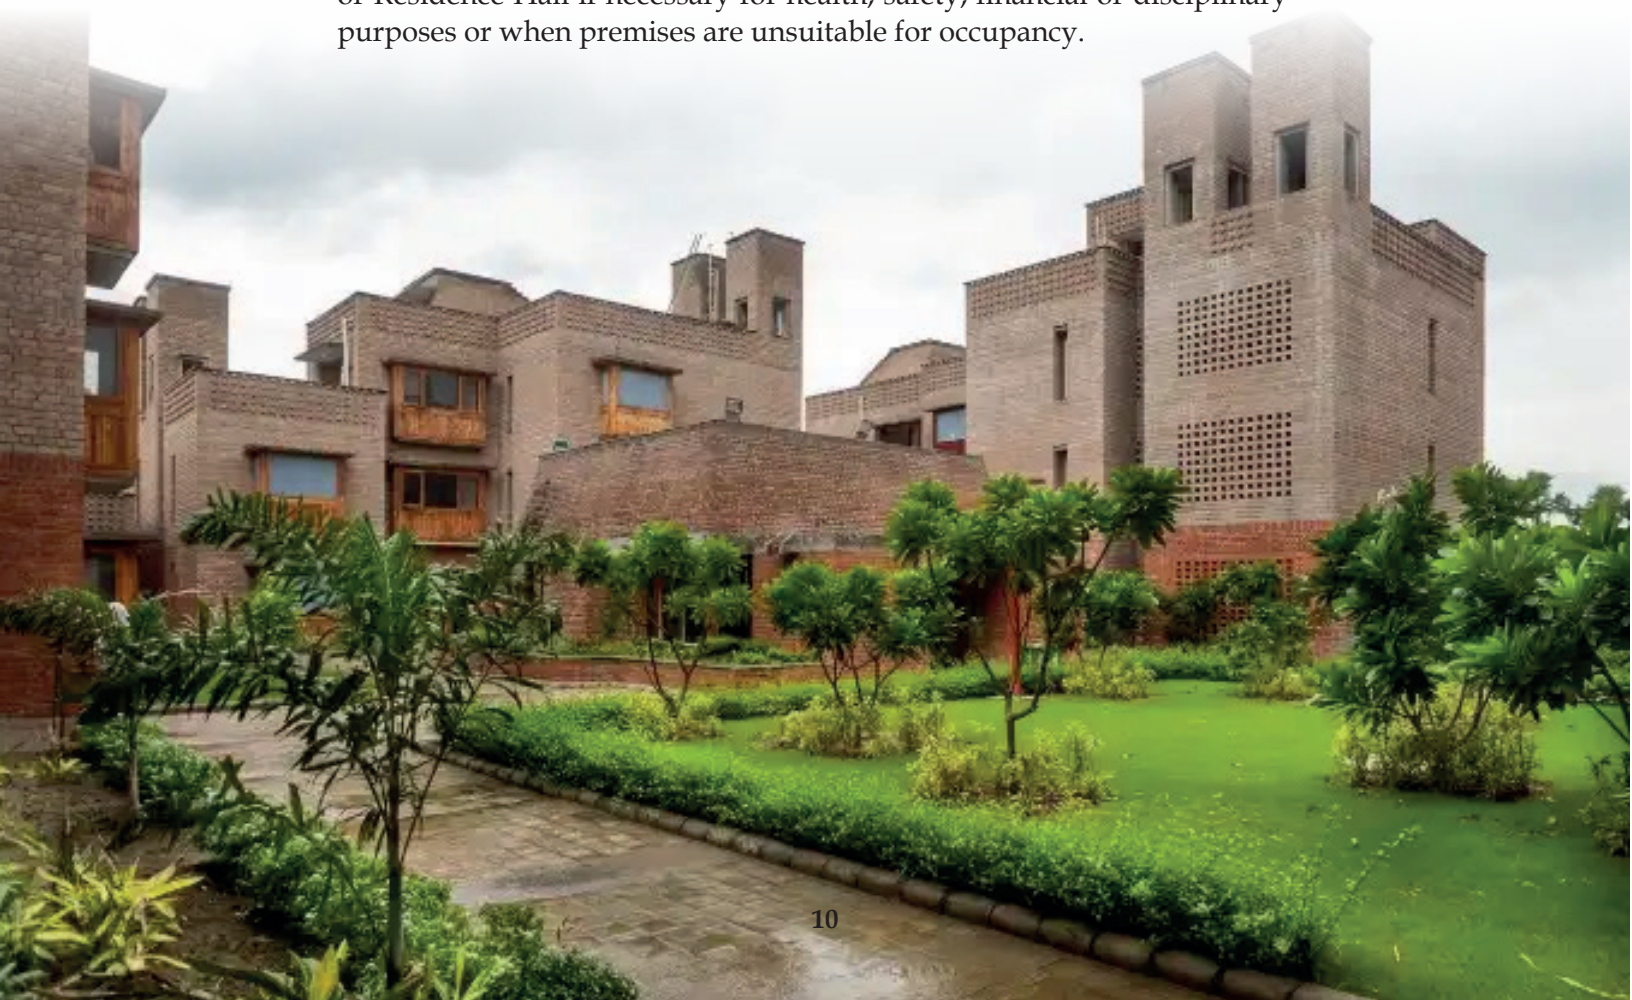

- » Sharing accommodation with another resident.
 - » Consolidation of residents into designated hostel blocks for operational, maintenance, safety, or energy-conservation purposes; and any other administrative arrangements considered necessary by the Hostel Administration.
 - The student must also pay the prescribed fees towards accommodation and mess charges for the entire period during vacation.
 - All Graduating residents are expected to vacate their rooms at the end of their programme of study, after obtaining a No Dues Certificate from all the concerned sections of the University.
- d.Payment of Fees and Refund Policy
- Fee Structure
- The tuition fees for the academic year along with the hostel fee and meal charges shall be as specified on the admission portal of the University at the commencement of every admission cycle.
 - The students may either pay the fee referred to in clause (1) at one time for the entire course of study of programme or every semester wise as per the options laid down by the University in this behalf.
 - The University shall revise the fees in every three to five years with the approval of the Executive Body of the University.
 - The University is a fully residential University and a student shall pay fees for hall of residence, meal and other amenities as specified in the University website from time to time at the beginning of the semester.
 - Any failure to pay the fees shall result in cancellation of admission or registration by the University.

ROOM ALLOTMENT

- Allotment of rooms shall be at the sole discretion of the Residential Hall Administration, which may allot the rooms on the basis of availability, on first-come-first-served basis. Deposition of Residence Hall charges for a particular category of room at a Residence Hall shall form the basis for “first-come-first served”.
- Residents must occupy the room allotted to them. Rooms are allotted to a resident for the full academic year and allocations once made will not be altered.
- Student shall not ordinarily be permitted any request for change of room in between the Academic Year.
- Without Prior permission under no circumstances residents can exchange rooms.
- The Hostel Administration reserve the right to change room assignments (consolidate) when vacancies occur.
- The Residence Hall Management may reassign Students from a room, floor or Residence Hall if necessary for health, safety, financial or disciplinary purposes or when premises are unsuitable for occupancy.

RESPONSIBILITY FOR THE ROOM AND RESIDENT LIABILITY

- The University shall allot room on Twin sharing basis only to the students. Only the allottee is allowed to reside in the room.
- Keeping or accommodating any unauthorized guest in a hostel room is strictly prohibited. Any resident found accommodating unauthorized guests in the room will lead to a monetary fine of INR 2000/- per day and could result in expulsion from the Residence Hall. (An unauthorized guest is anyone who is not permitted to be in the room, i.e. has not registered or made their presence known to the hostel authorities etc.) In addition, all such cases will be referred to the University's Disciplinary Committee for further necessary action.
- The Residential Hall Management will provide in each room, a minimum set of furniture and fittings consisting of a bed, table, chair, cupboard for each resident as well as a ceiling fan and ceiling light fittings.
- Students are required to look at the inventory carefully and check the items of furniture, fixture and other articles in their rooms at the time of occupying the rooms. Having checked the items, they will be made to sign the inventory form and hand it over to the Hostel warden / Incharge.

- Repairs or replacement of any damaged item in the room must be reported in writing to the Residence Hall Manager. Each Residence Hall maintains a Complaint Register for the said purpose.
- Residents must cooperate in carrying out maintenance work and vacate their rooms completely when the Residential Hall Administration requires the rooms for this purpose. On such occasions, the Management shall provide alternative accommodation.
- Resident(s) in a room are solely liable for any damage to the room or its property, once occupancy has been established.
- The room must be in the same condition at the time of departure of the resident. If any item is damaged, compensation as assessed by the Residential Hall Management shall be recovered from the resident(s) concerned as per the Clause noted later in the section titled "Other Codes of Conduct".
- Students are not permitted to make any change or replacement without permission of Residential hall Incharge.
- All residents are responsible for locking their rooms and safeguarding their personal belongings and University property in their rooms.
- No furniture should be shifted from one room to another without prior written permission from the Hostel Warden / Manager.
- All students and residents shall observe energy-saving practices as an essential condition of residence on the Net-Zero Campus.

- All residents are required to switch off lights, fans, air-conditioners, exhaust fans, computers, chargers, and other appliances when not required.
- Keep doors and windows closed while air-conditioning is operating;
- Tamper with meters, sensors, thermostats, distribution boards, wiring, sockets, solar-energy systems, or Building Management System equipment is strictly prohibited.

- Residents may use clocks, radios, stereos, computers and lamps in their rooms.
- The use of the following personal items is prohibited: Electrical/electro-mechanical equipment such as electric stove, heaters, refrigerator, washing machine, infrared cooker, or any appliance using gas.
- While personalizing rooms, residents must not re-wire them or modify electrical outlets, switches, fixtures, or wall coverings.
- Private cooking in the rooms or anywhere in the Hall is strictly forbidden. However, Students can make use of the Pantry in the Residence Halls dedicated for this purpose.
- Any forbidden appliance found in a room will be confiscated and will attract a monetary fine. The Hall Management will also take strict disciplinary action against the defaulter.
- Appliances should be attended to when in use and unplugged when not in use.
- Audio systems should be used keeping in mind that no inconvenience is caused to other residents.
- When residents go out of their rooms, they should switch off all the electrical/electronic appliances and lock the doors.
- Residents are not allowed to move furniture or fixtures from the public areas of the Residence Hall to their room or vice-versa.

HALL MAINTENANCE AND CLEANLINESS

The University is very particular about the maintenance and cleanliness to maintain high level hygiene of its residential facilities. Maintenance requests will normally be completed within 1-3 working days, but it may take longer in some cases. Co-operation of residents is of utmost importance for activities related to the upkeep of the Residence Halls. There will be periodic review and surprise visits by the hostel management.

i. Trash

Residents must properly dispose all their trash, including all recyclables, at appropriate places meant for the purpose. Residents found to be disposing trash improperly will be charged for its clean up and removal. The rooms, common areas and surroundings of the Residence Halls should be kept clean and hygienic.

ii. General Maintenance and Cleanliness

It is the responsibility of the Residential Hall Management to look after the general maintenance and cleanliness of the Hall premises including the building, courtyards and the common toilets. All residents must cooperate with the Hall management in these works.

Nalanda University has been developed as a Net-Zero and environmentally sustainable campus. All residents, and member of the University community shall actively contribute towards protecting and maintaining the sustainability standards of the University.

- Discipline should be strictly maintained in the dining halls.
- Food will not be served in rooms and the inmates are not supposed to take food out from the dining hall to their rooms.
- In no case, a resident can enter the kitchen either to collect food or to communicate any grievances regarding food to the kitchen staff.
- After having their meals, the diners shall keep the glass, plate, waste food etc. in the designated bins.
- Wasting food is a Social crime. For the first offence of wasting food by a diner, warning will be issued to her or him. If the concerned diner is found repeating the mistake, strict disciplinary action shall be taken against her or him, including imposing a penalty. Paying the bills towards the dining services does not entitle a diner to waste food.
- The menu will be prepared by the Mess Committee and it will be displayed on the Notice Boards from time to time.
- Shouting and sitting on the dining table or mishandling dining hall furniture is strictly prohibited, if anyone is found doing so, she or he shall be penalized depending on the severity of offence.
- Modesty in dress is expected from the students in the dining halls.
- During summer vacation the dining services shall be stopped in the Residence Halls after a specified date. Apart from that, if at any time the strength of the diners falls below 20, the University Administration reserves the right to stop the Dining services temporarily.
- Individual cooking of food shall be done only in the designated area in the Residence Halls. Cooking in the rooms at the Residence Halls is strictly prohibited. Any resident found to be indulging in such act will be penalized with a fine not less INR 1000 at the first instance. Strict disciplinary action shall be initiated against the repeat offenders.
- Students shall pay in full towards dining services for the whole Semester in advance on the due date, as intimated by the University.

- Skipping the meals at the dining hall does not entitle a resident to any rebate in dining hall bills.
- The dining hall has a system of self service.
- Students on no account will be permitted to take food outside the mess or bring food from outside. Nor they can take mess utensils such as plates, spoons, tumblers, etc. to their rooms.
- The gates of the dining hall are locked by 10 pm every day.
- Violation of any of the above rules will attract disciplinary action.

All the inmates of the Residence Halls are requested to cooperate with Mess committee members for their efficient enforcement of the above mentioned rules and regulations set out for dining halls. The University Administration reserves the right to revise the rules and regulations from time to time at the behest of Mess committee. All such changes made, shall be notified to the residents of the Hall by putting them on the concerned notice boards of the Residence halls.

Ignorance of rules will never be accepted as an excuse.

All the violations of the rules and policies documented here, have to be reported by the concerned Dining Hall Manager/ Residence hall manager, to the Registrar of the University for Further Penal Action on the defaulter.

GENDER SENSITIZATION COMMITTEE (GSC)

The Gender Sensitization Committee (GSC) is constituted by the University to promote a safe, respectful, inclusive, and gender-sensitive campus environment for all students. The Committee works towards fostering awareness, preventing gender-based discrimination and harassment, encouraging mutual respect, and promoting equality and dignity within the University community.

The Committee also undertakes educational and outreach activities such as awareness programmes, workshops, discussions, orientation sessions, campaigns, and other initiatives aimed at creating an environment free from discrimination, intimidation, bullying, or gender-based prejudice.

Matters that may be reported to the GSC

Any resident may approach the Gender Sensitization Committee regarding concerns including, but not limited to:

- Gender-based discrimination or unequal treatment.
- Sexist, misogynistic, or derogatory remarks, jokes, gestures, or behaviour.
- Bullying, intimidation, or humiliation on the basis of gender, gender identity, or gender expression.
- Stalking, persistent unwanted communication, or inappropriate attention.
- Online harassment, cyberbullying, or misuse of social media involving gender-based abuse.
- Unwelcome comments, verbal conduct, or behaviour creating a hostile or uncomfortable environment.
- Concerns relating to dignity, privacy, safety, or respectful treatment within the hostel or University premises.
- Issues affecting equal participation in academic, cultural, residential, or extracurricular activities on the basis of gender.
- Any other matter affecting the principles of gender equality, inclusion, mutual respect, or safety within the University.

Rights of Students

Every student residing in the Residence Hall has the right to:

- Be treated with dignity, equality, and respect;
- Reside in an environment free from discrimination, harassment, intimidation, and gender-based violence;
- Report any incident without fear of retaliation or victimization;
- Seek guidance, support, and information regarding available institutional mechanisms;
- Have complaints handled with fairness, impartiality, and, wherever possible, confidentiality;
- Participate in awareness programmes and initiatives promoting gender equality and respectful conduct.
- Residents are encouraged to report concerns at the earliest opportunity so that timely assistance and appropriate guidance may be provided. Email:- gsc@nalandauniv.edu.in
